

U.S. May Halt Subsidy to Cuban Rebels' Council

WASHINGTON, April 17 (UPI)—The United States may halt its 2.4 million-a-year subsidy to the Cuban Revolutionary council, now headed by exiled Jose Miro Gonsalves, administration officials said today. If such action is taken, the government would have to find other ways to coordinate its relations with the 200,000 Cuban refugees in this country. The many political elements represented within the refugee camp could make this especially difficult. Officials said the U.S. decision would hinge on whether the revolutionary council is a genuine force for change in Cuba.

Even if the council should be a genuine force for change, the administration might be reluctant to support it. The council has broken with the Kennedy administration on Cuba policy. 15 Arrested In Negro Voter March

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 17 (UPI)—Negroes opened a voter registration campaign today in their 15-day-old desegregation drive and police quickly arrested the first 15 who attempted to march on the county courthouse.

About 28 Negroes walked from a church and turned toward the courthouse but 13 reversed the course. The other 15 were stopped less than a block away from an officer told them. "Let's stop it right there."

You are in violation of a city ordinance, the officer said. "Are you aware an injunction has been issued to prohibit parades or demonstrations?"

The Negro leading the group said "This is not a parade. We are going down to register to vote."

Police Commissioner Eugene "Boss" Egan said today when told officers planned to take the two leaders of the march to jail in a patrol car.

Earlier, the Rev. F. L. Shuttlesworth—one of the leaders in the campaign—sent a telegram to Mayor George Wallace asking him to cancel telling him groups of 20-30 would march to the courthouse to register.

Police Officer Charlie Moore appeared at a church where some 60 Negroes had gathered.

Moore told them, "Now you know I had nothing anything against your registering to vote. You know that, but if you march in the parade, you are in violation of a city ordinance and we will take necessary actions to keep you from violating the law."

Lee was no girl slacker then that he asked total strangers to attend the services no Shirley would have a nice funeral," he said.

Shortly after Shirley's funeral, Lee gave his 10-year-old son, Lee Jr., a bullet to the chest, and a two-day bulleting to the left ear. Shirley attended, several plaques and her memory were placed in the church and her school.

Before Lee died in a north Idaho tavern he called the Chicago Daily News and told Willie J. Moore, assistant city editor, he had sent the newspaper a Manila envelope, Moore said he deleted the story because of a violation of the city ordinance.

BURLEY, April 17 (UPI)—Nominating meetings for potato shippers in eastern Idaho last week were postponed by a week because of the potato marketing order.

He said the meeting for district three will be held Friday night at Ponderosa Inn, Burley. A similar meeting is scheduled in Idaho Falls Friday night.

Ramsayer pointed out at Grower-Shippers association meetings in eastern Idaho last week there was discussion of certain amendments to the marketing order.

The Grower-Shippers association said the amendments to the marketing order, including changes in the present district boundaries and committee representation.

Steel Price Hike Nearly Completes Sweep in Industry

NEW YORK, April 17 (UPI)—Selective steel price rises all but completed a sweep through the industry today. The nation's seven largest producers had fallen into line, and after them tumbled a growing stream of large and small steelmakers. Rounding out the top seven today were Bethlehem Steel company, National Steel corporation, and Youngstown Sheet and Tube company, second, fifth, and seventh ranking firms. Their announcements came less than 24 hours after the dam broke when U.S. Steel corporation, industry giant, posted a markup—after several days of cutting.

Despite some variation, the Bethlehem and National markups held to the general pattern set previously, corresponding closely with those posted Tuesday by U.S. Steel corporation, the largest steelmaker.

The Bethlehem increase, confined to three big-shipment items, added $4 a ton to the price of hot rolled sheets and strip, $3 on cold rolled sheets and $7 on galvanized sheets.

In addition to "Big Steel" Jones and Laughlin Steel corporation, Armco Steel corporation and Inland Steel corporation joined the parade Tuesday.

Armo and Inland declined a year ago to join in across-the-board increases which collapsed. Some industry sources say it raises a good chance of sticking, in contrast to the effort a year ago, which fell apart under the weight of President Kennedy's failure of a solid front to develop.

As company after company announced its price hike, Kennedy's shattered front was reported keeping a close watch on the industry.

After Wheeling broke the price line the President indicated that selective increases would be accepted. The Steelworkers' union action against which would be a general strike.

U.S. Steel's price raises were the lowest of those announced so far, averaging $4.85 a ton.

Commission Proposal Rapped by Senator

WASHINGTON, April 17 (UPI)—A southern senator today challenged the constitutionality of a civil rights commission proposal under which President Kennedy would consider cutting off federal funds for Mississippi because of racial disorders. Sen. A. Willis Robertson, D. Va., said, "Our form of federal union is gone" if the President could withhold money under such circumstances. He said he knew of no constitutional provision for such action. The U.S. civil rights commission told the President in a Tuesday report that the time has come to crack down on Mississippi moves quickly to end shootings, killings and denial of constitutional rights to Negroes.

The report urged the President to study whether legislation was needed to block use of federal funds to Mississippi and to look into the legal authority he already has as chief executive to withhold federal money.

Any request for such legislation would run into a southern filibuster in the senate, all other things being equal. Sen. Robert Kennedy said he would support the commission's suggestion that the President see if he could act on his own.

Robertson told a reporter the constitutional amendment giving the President the power to withhold federal funds from states that deny civil rights to Negroes.

Stage Is Set for Pari-Mutuel Case

BOISE, April 17 (UPI)—The stage was set today for a final showdown in the controversy over the legality of Idaho's new pari-mutuel horse racing law. The issue was set up to Gov. Robert E. Smylie Tuesday by the Idaho supreme court in a decision to appoint a three-man horse racing committee or to explain by May 2 why he has not done so. A 1963 law which authorized pari-mutuel betting on horse races was vetoed by Smylie but the legislature overrode his veto. To date Smylie has blocked attempts to bring the law into effect by refusing to appoint a three-man committee provided for in the measure. He contends that it is a violation of the state constitution.

Smylie said he will not decide if a course of action until he confers with Atty. Gen. Allen O. Sheperd.

But he said he believes he is correctly interpreting the bill and said he does not think the court should have issued its writ.

The high court issued an order granting an alternative writ, mandamus requested in an affidavit on behalf of the county filed by County Clerk, Chester F. Jerome, and by Joe Hansen, of Wendell, vice president of the Idaho Horse Breeders' association.

An attaché said the court's action in issuing the writ does not indicate that it will accept original jurisdiction in the case. That decision will be made, the attaché said, on the basis of Smylie's reply to the writ.

In its order granting the writ, the court said documents filed with the petition indicate that Smylie has failed to appoint a committee, as required by the law, despite a request from the county clerk.

The law forbids the county to operate a pari-mutuel track. The petition said, "As a term of art for such jurisdictional purposes, the court should not be misled by the fact that the law is a violation of the state constitution."

CAIRO, April 17 (UPI)—Egypt, Iraq and Iraq have pledged to form a new United Arab Republic based economically on Arab nationalism and politically on Western parliamentary institutions.

Announced aims are to wipe out feudalism, capitalism, reaction and imperialism, and to liberate the Jewish state from the Jewish state.

BARN ON THE AUGUST MARTSCH PLACE, one and one-half miles west and one-half mile north of Paul, was demolished during a severe windstorm Monday. LaVonne Martsch, 14, who was looking out a window in the farmhouse when the barn was "raised," said, "It was picked up, and when it dropped it just smashed." Her brother, William, 18, was sitting in a truck about 50 feet from the barn when the wind-raised it. He commented, "When it started to go up in the air, I just closed my eyes." The barn contained a truck, two tractors, and a hay cart which remained on the cement floor when the wooden frame was torn away. Pieces of the barn were found scattered all over the farmyard and one piece of aluminum roofing was found a quarter of a mile away in a neighbor's field. Damage to the barn was estimated at $2,000. No livestock was in the building.

Libel Suit Filed Against W. Winchell

NEW YORK, April 17 (AP) — James A. Wechsler, editorial page editor of the New York Post, filed a $15 million dollar libel suit today against Walter Winchell and the Hearst corporation, charging that the columnist had suggested Wechsler was "disloyal to the United States."

The supreme court suit said Winchell, with the knowledge of the Hearst organization, had charged that Wechsler had "not resigned from the Young Communist league in 1937 and that I continued to be a member of the communist party."

This, Wechsler said, was far from the truth, adding, "I have been an active and well-known opponent of communism."

The suit was similar to one filed by Wechsler against Winchell in 1952 and settled three

The girl, Linda Fuller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Smith, suffered brain concussion, bruises and abrasions, and some internal injuries, according to her mother, Bonneville County Deputy Sheriff Dalton Strain said the girl apparently was leaning against a temporary exit in the bus and the door flew open. ATHOL, April 17 (UP)—Kootenai County Sheriff John Bender was continuing an investigation today into an apparent murder-suicide involving a Coeur d'Alene realtor and a Post Falls woman. The bodies of the two were found sprayed on a highway two and one-half miles east of this north Idaho community Tuesday. Bender said Mrs. Mary Jane Sanders, about 45, was shot in the head with a .410 shotgun. Then, A. P. Wall, 64, apparently turned the gun on himself. Bender said the bodies were spotted near a car parked alongside highway 54 by the driver of a bread truck. He alerted a nearby utility crew that contacted sheriff's deputies by two-way radio. Bender said he was told by several motorists that they saw a woman standing beside the car holding her head in her hands and a man walking toward the rear of the auto. One woman said she saw the man standing near the trunk of the car holding what appeared to be a gun.

G. Davis flew over the area in a plane piloted by John Peterson. Weiser, they reported, sighting no automobile, no people and no campfire in the entire area where the boys were believed to have gone. Davis said further aerial searching was planned during the day, but without a clue as to what area to hunt no further ground search was immediately planned. Aide Kills Arab Prince In France

PARIS, April 17 (UP)—Saudi Arabian Prince Abdul Ala Ben Saud Djalal fired his male secretary shortly before the man shot and killed him in the lobby of a fashionable Paris hotel, police sources said today.

They said the man, Amal Mansour, told police he had fallen in love with a young woman and had been spending most of his time with her. The woman was not identified.

Yesterday the prince, a cousin of King Saudi, looked for Mansour to run an urgent errand. He found him entertaining the girl in his room, sources said.

The prince fired Mansour, employed on a temporary basis as a secretary-bodyguard-translator, and later engaged in a violent argument with him in the lobby of the Hotel Claridge. He refused to take Mansour to Saudi Arabia with him.

A hotel employee said Mansour drew a gun, shot down the prince and then calmly pumped three bullets into the prince's head as he lay dying.

Source at a hospital where King Saudi is undergoing medical treatment said the monarch became furious when informed of the death of his cousin. He issued no public statement, however.

Astronauts' Wives Visit In Austin

AUSTIN, Tex., April 17 (AP)—Wives of U. S. astronauts "do no more than the wives of helicopter crews in Viet Nam or the women that the Threshers left behind," Mrs. Maholm Scott Carpenter said Tuesday. She and the wives of eight other spacemen were here for a one-day visit.

Mrs. Carpenter related to men in the South Viet Nam and aboard the nuclear submarine Thresher in addressing a civic club luncheon group.

At another point she spoke of vast change in the lives of astronaut families.

"It's as if I'd been acting on a dark stage all my married life and suddenly someone turns on the spotlight," Mrs. Carpenter said.

She and the other wives took a quick tour of Austin. It was their first excursion from Houston since the newest astronauts were moved to the Manned Spacecraft center there last year.

At the luncheon, Mrs. Carpenter said the space wives suddenly jumped together by news of the astronauts "strained to maintain our identities."

"We were extremely correct and good-to-each-other—We smoothed over our differences, making allowances for each other's idiosyncrasies," she continued.

And we had a thousand laughs which more than anything helped maintain our sense of values and proportion in the face of this growing thing in our lives."

Questions about this wives' fears during the flights are irritating, Mrs. Carpenter said.

"I am reminded that we do no more than the wives of helicopter crews in Viet Nam or the women that the Threshers left behind. They risked just as much and they lost a great deal more."

With Mrs. Carpenter were the wives of two other original astronauts, Mrs. John H. Glenn, Jr., and Mrs. Virgil I. Grissom, and Mrs. Edward H. White, II, Mrs. Thomas P. Blaford, Mrs. John W. Young, Mrs. Frank Borman, Mrs. James A. McDivitt and Mrs. Elliot S. Sze.

Mrs. Allen B. Shepard, Jr., was unable to come as planned because of a delay in returning from an Easter vacation at Cape Canaveral, Fla., with her husband.

Burley Gives Approval for Summer Band

BURLEY, April 17—Financial support was granted for a Burley municipal summer band to present six concerts when the city council met Monday evening in the city hall.

Ronald Archibald, Burley high school band instructor, appeared two weeks ago and requested $600 to pay band members at the rate of $1 per concert and $1 per rehearsal. The city council voted to give him $500.

Another $500 was granted to the Centennial non-profit organization to be used as working capital.

Robert Saxvik and Ralph Rasmussen explained the celebration which is being produced by the Rogers company will cost $12,750 but the organization expects to make much more than enough to pay for it.

Nine representatives of the Overland school PTA appeared with a petition asking that the city support the installation of a timed stoplight at the intersection of Eighth street and Overland avenue.

Appearing were Mrs. Gwendolyn Cole who acted as spokesman, Don Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fairchild, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Andrews, Mrs. Howard Gibson and Mrs. Virginia Fox. The petition had 29 signatures.

Councilmen noted the city would have to make a traffic count and then send a recommendation to the state highway board, who would then make a second traffic count and another recommendation before the installation of the stoplight could be approved. The council agreed to support the project.

F. K. Bordin told the council he was unable to farm four acres of land because of activity by city crews who were installing a new water line along the city's 4-18 club meet at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at his home. Several projects, including livestock, crops, etc., will be discussed. Parents are urged to accompany their children to this organization meeting.

oil company for diesel and fuel oil for the next year.

Mrs. Belva Russell, juvenile officer and social worker, was authorized to attend a conference at Moscow and Cour d'Alene May 27-31, with the city and county to share expenses.

Neil Anderson, engineer, was authorized to set up specifications and advertise for bids for a new backbone for the city. Anderson said the present backbone is 18 years old and presently inoperative.

A request was approved from persons living on the north side of East Fifth street who asked that they be allowed to hook up to the new city sewer lines. Councilmen agreed that requests will be granted when they are made.

International Week Marked By Local Unit

Twin Falls Alpha Nu chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha, sorority, will observe the week of April 28 to May 4 as Epsilon Sigma Alpha International week.

Epsilon Sigma Alpha is one of the oldest off-campus sororities in existence. It was founded by a group of women who believed that "academic education one faces a severe challenge of fitting into the economic and social structure of the world."

Epsilon Sigma Alpha is one of the largest non-academic sororities in the world. It has 1,000 chapters and more than 40,000 members throughout the United States and foreign lands.

The sorority is an educational, social and philanthropic organization. The first chapter was installed in Jacksonville, Tex., Sept. 13, 1929. Prominent women of that era helped organize Epsilon Sigma Alpha. Among the first members were the author, Willa Cather, and Dr. M. Freeda Lotz, Colorado Springs.

The next 12 years were difficult ones for the tiny sorority which was forced to flounder through the depression years. Then in 1941, Robert E. Palmer—a widely-known educational philosopher, author and lecturer—took over as head of the small chain of locally administered clubs.

Under Palmer's leadership Epsilon Sigma Alpha has grown into an international organization with philanthropic projects totaling more than one million dollars annually.

Alpha Nu was organized in 1933 and has a membership of 10. It meets the first and third Wednesday of each month, in addition to special events which include husbands of members.

ESA International week recognizes all three facets of the sorority—social, philanthropic and educational. But during that week members place special emphasis on philanthropic projects.

Alpha Nu has undertaken such projects as selling candy for the Crippled Children society, which is the ESA's state philanthropic project; holding a cooked food sale with proceeds going to the Twin Falls Easter Seal clinic; sponsoring a coffee hour in Twin Falls for the muscular dystrophy drive, and getting out muscular dystrophy canisters in local establishments.

Class B Athletes Slate Three Meets; Class A Clubs to Leave District

Magie Valley class B athletes conduct their final open events of the season today with action slated at Gooding State, Twin Falls and Burley tracks. Next week the class B men must begin the qualifying for state and many will be lost to the sub-district competitions. Most of the schools will be in Gooding State at Burley. In addition, Wendell, Shoshone and Halley will hold a triangular meet in Twin Falls. All competition begins at 3 p.m.

Leafs Top Wings to Close in on Crown

DETROIT, April 17 (AP)—Shifty Dave Keon's untied goal in the third period sparked Toronto to a 3-2 victory over the Detroit Red Wings Tuesday night that gave the Maple Leafs a commanding 3-1 lead in the National Hockey leagues Stanley cup finals. Keon's dazzling solo rush around two Detroit defenders with less than 11 minutes to play capped a comeback battle by the Leafs, who twice spoiled Detroit one-goal leads.

ALL-ANGLES

BY LARRY HOVEY

Announcement of the Magie Valley Cowboys baseball team all day followed by a feeling of triumph by the team's supporters. This feeling is prevalent from the top right down to the bottom left, in fact, it is so prevalent that it is almost impossible to keep the team from having more low than high scores.

The team announced Tuesday night by the Philadelphia Phillies is no exception. Running down the list are few carried run averages and batting averages that keep up at you.

The difference in this club and those seen here the past two years again is in the pitching department. Many people will say at the outfield lineup and the vital statistics carried in the Times-News and wonder why Clay Daniels, Philadelphia pitcher, could say "the punch" in the outfield. The averages there hover around .300 mark but again don't say anything like the 300 with Phillips last year. Now, why is Phillips name brought into the conversation?

Last year at this time, there were many wondering why Phillips hadn't been released and sent to the Panama City for his or his life. Adolfo came to Twin Falls last spring boasting a .300 average and a reputation as being the Pioneer League's worst fly catcher.

The same thing is going through many fans minds again this year—about Don Bessy and Rufus Ross. Bessy's average is .300 so far, hasn't quite found the consistent touch. Perhaps this will be the year to transform.

But being human, we also look at the roster. The bright spot appears to be Jack Molton. He was 2-0 and .333 earned run average with Williamsport last year. That was a Class A classification in 1952.

In the outfield is Al Johnson, who averaged .333 in hitting last year with only five home runs. Elias Jamison, out during the middle of the season with injuries, hit 11 home runs at Bakersfield but his average dropped to .266.

Taken as a whole, the infield appears brighter offensively than last year, except at first base. While the Cowboys had a .266 and league pace-setting in home runs there in Hank Allen last year, the qualifications of Jim Campbell's quite viable. He hit .231 with four home runs at Dothan.

But second baseman Danny Simmons was .266, third baseman Rudy Tomaselli had .270 and shortstop Mike Marshall hit .262 with five home runs. In each of these positions the offensive output is above or at least comparable to last year.

Therefore it once again is pitching. And the brief history of the Magie Valley working agreement with the Phillies has found that to be the weakest link. The Cowboys the past two years have belted more home runs than anyone else—not entirely due to the somewhat smaller Jaycee park—but have given up more than. While they have scored prodigiously, the toes have found Phillips pitching farmhands to be "sweet hitting."

For that reason, a secret hope has been harbored all winter long that Charlie Hershberger, well-known pitching man here, might be sent back to Magie Valley. Charlie had a big year as a starter in 1952 and again was a reliever in 1951.

Last year, asked where he wanted to go, Charlie chose Dothan, where, as a reliever, he was in good luck and was named the class B pitcher of the year.

Since it was this club that signed Charlie for the Phillies last year he has been released—still mystifying here—by the Chicago Cubs, and Moose Johnson was his manager last season, the hope for Charlie is being set in Chianagoona (double A) this spring.

In fact, most of the boys who were Cowboys last year will be Chianagoona Lookouts this year. Looking forward to Friday night, we join with our fans in hoping there is a John Shook (the old riddle of the year) among the new men and a couple

By winning, the Leafs return home to Toronto for Thursday's fifth game in the best-of-seven playoff series meeting only one more victory to capture their second straight Stanley cup.

Keon, who set up Toronto's first goal, picked up a loose puck at center ice and streaked in with it, darting first to his right and then to his left before ramming his stick into Keon's goal. Red Kelly fired in his second goal of the game for Toronto.

Detroit, fighting to square the series, dominated most of the game until winning in the last period.

The Red Wings went ahead on Eddie Hodge's goal in the opening minutes and then took a 2-1 lead in the second period on a marker by rookie Eddie Joyal.

Keon's most prized trophy, the "other" score, turning in Keon's pass for the goal that tied it 1-1 early in the second period. Johnny Bower's spectacular play in the Toronto goal prevented the Red Wings from running up a sizeable lead in the first two periods. The 38-year-old Bower, sprained his knee late in the second period, kicked out 30 shots, 17 in the second period.

Savchuk also was impressive. Detroit net until Toronto's third period assault. He had 29 saves for the night.

Zowe got Detroit started at 2:54 of the opening period on a blast from just inside the blue line. It was too hot for Bower to handle and streaked off his glove into the net.

Detroit's lead held until Armstrong tied it for Toronto at 1:17 of the second period on Keon's pass from the corner.

Red Hot

NEW YORK, April 17 (AP)—Tom Tresh, the New York Yankees left fielder, has to be the hottest hitter in baseball. In his last 14 trips to the plate, he has been on base 12 times.

The averages through Tuesday's game with Detroit, show Tresh with a .500 mark, nine hits in 15 at-bats.

In his last 14 trips, the rookie-of-the-year in 1952 has collected one homerun, two doubles, five singles, four walks.

Of others ready to make the Adolph Phillips transition, we get our first look April 28 under fire.

Among the highlights of Friday meet at Gooding State will be the rematch between three-time district mile champion Tom Gormley, Camas County, and Gooding State's Johnson, who handed Gormley his first spotted Detroit one-goal leads.

The two have split two meetings.

In addition to Magie Valley, the state will be watching the efforts of two Halley men, Jim Exner, 440-yard dash, and Tom Young, 440-yard dash, both have posted the leading times in the state for their specialties. Exner has clocked a 1:12 after an earlier 55.8 while Young has run 2:10.8 and 2:11.1.

Wendell and Shoshone are hopeful of coming up with challenges for Young in the 880-yard dash, while Wendell's hope while Shoshone is looking for improvement on Dean Williams, Williams, a sprinter by trade but distance runner by leg injury, has been beaten once by Young so far. Wendell's Pow-George Armstrong was Toronto's other score, turning in Keon's pass for the goal that tied it 1-1 early in the second period.

Probably some of the area's performers will also test the bigger fields at Ricks and B. as they have in the past. Since no invitations are required for the various meets, locally, the clerks have no idea which teams to expect.

Class A athletes headed for Ricks will run into strong competition, largely Borah-Bols, Nampa and Caldwell. Twin Falls appears to have the best chance for finishing in the top three places, having been runner-up to Borah in the College of Idaho invitational last week.

However, chances for repeating on that level were dimmed Tuesday when several boys on the club missed school and practice because of illness, including dash and discus man Tim Layman and runner, Wayne Duncan.

Burley's biggest threats will be Kahan, Paul, Blackfoot and Fostello but the Bobcats could show well, according to times and distances posted in that area so far.

"No Evidence Worthy of Belief" Found by Alabama

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 17 (AP)—A special legislative committee reported to the legislature Tuesday that it found "no evidence worthy of belief" to support charges by the Saturday Evening Post that the 1952 Georgia-Alabama football game was rigged.

The committee said it and Alabama Attorney Gen. Richmond Flowers "have examined every material witness of whom we now have knowledge" and "who has been available to us. Based upon the information we now have, the committee has concluded that the evidence does not support charges made in the March 22 Saturday Evening Post article, 'The Story of a College Football Fix.'"

The article charged that former Georgia Athletic Director Wallace Butts telephoned Bully Bryant to Alabama Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant before the game which Alabama, a heavy favorite, won 35-0.

"The committee said in its report: 'We have been unable to find any credible evidence of illegal, corrupt, unethical or unsportsmanlike conduct on the part of Coach Paul Bryant; nor have we found any such evidence to indicate that the 1952 football game between the University of Alabama and the University of Georgia was rigged or fixed in any way. We have found no evidence worthy of belief to indicate that Coach Paul Bryant received any information from Coach Wallace Butts that had any effect on the game.'"

"Because of the fact that it appears to the committee that Georgia politics has been a major factor in this situation," the report continued, "and because there may be further evidence available to the committee, we have decided not to make a final

Nine Hits in Nine Years Is 1,000, According to Aguirre's Figuring

NEW YORK, April 17 (AP)—"Nine hits in nine years. Not bad. I'm hitting 1,000."

Hank Aguirre's eyes smiled while he talked to the press Tuesday in the Detroit clubhouse. He had just broken a hitless string that stretched back to Aug. 23 and had sent his lifetime average soaring to .267. The hit was a minor-league, a swinging bunt that traveled about 10 feet. But the bases were loaded and three runs scored when Clete Boyer threw the ball wildly past first.

"Why did you stop at first?" a fellow asked the Tiger's pitcher who went the route to a 7-2 victory over the Yankees.

"I got so interested watching the men score I forgot," he said. Actually he lost track of the ball after the throw and decided to scamper back to first.

"Throw it back! No air, Tully! Take it. Do I get three runs batted in? I've been working on that hit all spring, since the days I grew up in Lakeland, down in Florida."

Aguirre stretched out on a rubber table with three or four packs on his left leg, prompting a visiting Detroit writer to remark, "Aguirre has just set a record for the most ice packs on one leg."

The Tigers' left-hander explained he hit himself on the big toe with a foul tip in batting practice. He was hit on the shin by a line drive off the bat of Tom Tresh in the eighth.

"One ice bag is for the toe," he said. "One is for the shin. The other was put there by Frank Larry to make it look good. Where are the photographers?"

"That was my second hit off Whitely Ford. The other was in 1950. I really hit him good."

Aguirre had two hits last year, one against the Yankees' Hal Fennell when he batted left-handed for the first—and last time. Two days later the Yanks sent Reniff to the minors.

"You can draw your own conclusions," Aguirre remarked at the time.

23 PLAYERS ASSIGNED TO MAGIC VALLEY

Team Will Arrive Here Friday; Three Former Cowboys Included on List

A 23-man roster, including three alumni, was released to the Magic Valley cowboy baseball roster Tuesday night by the Philadelphia Phillies. Warren E. (Bew) Jewell, general manager for the club, said the team will not arrive in Twin Falls until Friday evening, giving the club only one day in this area before opening the season Sunday at Boise. The home opener at Jayco park will be held at 12 p. m. April 28. Heading the list of returning Cowboys is Bob Carmo, an outfielder who has finished the last two seasons with the club. On the pitching staff are left-handed Brian Ross, who was here in 1961, and right-handed Don Bessey, who is beginning his third season with Magic Valley. Baseball fans also will remember another Cowboy pitcher, but not Magic Valley pitcher. He is Lane Phillips, a right-hander, who pitched for Idaho Falls last year and was selected by Philadelphia out of the New York Yankee club during the off season.

Clinic

The regular Thursday golf clinic for the Twin Falls Women's Golf association is slated for all members, according to Mrs. Evelyn Christensen, president. Pro Clyde Thomsen is in charge of the clinics.

Pierce Hurls Giants' First Home Victory

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17 (AP)—Veteran left-handed Billy Pierce hurls his first home victory for the San Francisco Giants, beating the Houston Astros 7-6 with a shutout in the 1963 home opener at the Giants stadium.

The 31-year-old Pierce won 13 games in windy Candlestick Park last season, including one in the world series after coming over from the American League. He still has not pitched in his new home.

With 4,783 fans attending, he struck out six and walked three in collecting his shutout.

Pierce's Augie Donatelli called him a "hulk," two of them against Pierce, and threw out Houston manager Harry Craft and pitcher Don Drysdale when they attempted to steal the third base called in their hurry.

Los Angeles, April 17 (AP)—The Chicago Cubs capitalized on a two-base error to break a tie in the 13th inning and spoiled the Los Angeles Dodgers' home opener, 3-2, Tuesday night before 21,778.

The 12th inning break came when centerfielder Willie Davis dropped a jump drive by leadoff man Billy Williams, who reached second on the misplay. Williams took third on an infield hit by Don Santo and scored on a sacrifice fly by Ernie Banks, who accounted for the first Chicago run with a fifth-inning homer.

Banks elected to lead off a 2-0 lead with his homer off Johnny Podres, who had lost a 2-0 decision to the Cubs last Thursday at Chicago. It was Banks' first homer.

CHICAGO, April 17 (AP)—Gino Cimoli drove in three runs as the Kansas City Athletics stretched a winning streak to four games and climbed into a three-way tie for the American league lead Tuesday with a 7-4 victory over the Chicago White Sox.

Lefty Ted Bewersdorf got his first triumph on a yield of 11 hits, including Ron Hansen's two-run homer in a belated ninth inning rally that brought John Wyatt to the rescue.

Hansen, collecting three hits, singled in the Sox first run in the fourth and snapped a string of 21 scoreless innings. Pete Cito doubled home another in the fifth.

Promoters Sued By Nevada Group

NEW YORK, April 17 (AP)—Representatives of a Nevada group have filed a $3 million suit Tuesday against Championship Sports, Inc., alleging irregularities in money used to help promote last year's heavyweight title fight between Floyd Patterson and Sonny Liston.

Max W. Smith and David J. Reiner claimed Championship Sports, Inc., caused the plaintiffs' assets to be wasted and diverted.

The suit was filed in federal court in behalf of the two men individually and also for Graff, Reiner and Smith, Enterprises, Inc., a Nevada corporation which had a contract covering television rights.

Needling two straight strikes and at least nine pins on his last ball in the 10th, Reiner beat the 730 which gave Don Wileman of Buffalo the angles last March 31, Hennessy fired three strikes to finish with 732 on games of 278, 221 and 233.

That total plus his 616 in the event Monday night and 631 earlier Tuesday in doubles gave the 38-year-old star a nine-game all-event mark of 1,908.

Redlegs Keep New York on Losing Trail

CINCINNATI, April 17 (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds pounded New York Yankees 10-4 Tuesday night, broke a four-game losing streak and handed the winless Mets their seventh straight defeat.

The Reds made a strong bid in the sixth inning when Duke Snider hit a two-run homer for his 2,001st hit.

After picking up an unearned run in the second, the Reds continued pecking away at Mets' starter Jay Hook until they broke through in the fifth. Hook began it with a walk, and the Reds followed through with five runs on five hits, including George Coleman's double.

Twins Edge Angels on 13th-Inning Walk

ST. PAUL, MINN., April 17 (AP)—Minnesota's outlasted the Los Angeles Angels 11-10 in a 4-hour 41-minute marathon Tuesday, getting the winning run when Ed Orba, the Angels' pitcher, walked.

The Twins had tied the count with their third late-inning play when Bernie Allen singled home Jim Hall, who had reached base on a fielder's choice from second.

Bob Turley, the seventh of the nine Angel hurlers, was charged with the defeat. Twins 20-year-old rookie southpaw Jim Roland got the win.

The two clubs use of 17 pitchers set a major league mark and the Angels' use of nine tied a record.

Bob Rodgers' sacrifice fly to right field plated Leon Wagner with Los Angeles' go-ahead run in the top of the 13th.

Wagner and Rodgers laced run-scoring hits in the top of the 11th to send the Angels in front 9-7. But the Twins came right back to deadlock it again with a pair in the last of the 11th on Bernie Allen's triple and Jim Lemon's single.

New Stars Enter Kansas Relays

LAWRENCE, Kan., April 17 (AP)—A trio of fine standouts in the 100-yard dash, a 16-foot pole vaulter, and two former Olympic decathlon competitors entered the 32nd Kansas relays Tuesday.

The two Olympians are Fred Mulkey, a history teacher from Birmingham, Ala., and Dave Edstrom, an ex-Oregonian now an air force lieutenant.

Mulkey broke the meet record for the fifth time last year with 7,490 points and already has more gold medals than any man in meet history by winning the decathlon six times.

Indians Blank Washington Senators 3-0

CLEVELAND, April 17 (AP)—Sam McDowell allowed only two hits and struck out 13 as Cleveland defeated Washington 3-0 Tuesday night on homers by Woodie Held and John Romano.

Senators' starter Claude Osteen matched scores with McDowell until the seventh inning when Held slammed a leadoff homer into the left field balcony. Romano hit another solo homer for the Indians to start the eighth.

The only hits off McDowell were a bloop single to center by Dick Phillips in the second inning and a double to right center by Mary Breeding in the fifth.

Russ Artist To Remain In Britain

LONDON, April 17 (AP)—Vladimir Ashkenazy, one of Russia's outstanding young pianists, has decided to stay in Britain rather than return to Moscow.

The home office announced last night that the 25-year-old concert performer had been given permission to remain in Britain indefinitely with his Icelandic-born wife, Thorunn, 22.

The couple arrived in London in February for a concert tour under the Anglo-Soviet cultural agreement. Ashkenazy was due to return to Moscow 10 days ago. He was not available for comment today.

Both the home office and the Soviet embassy said political asylum was not involved in the pianist's case.

Ashkenazy's decision to remain in Britain came at a time when Premier Nikita Khrushchev and other Soviet leaders are cracking down on Russian intellectuals to make them follow the communist party line in their works.

There was speculation that Ashkenazy's move might lead the Kremlin to impose more rigid restrictions on overseas travel by Russian artists.

$30,000 Bond Rejected for City Building

AMMON, April 17 (AP)—In what was termed a "disappointing" vote, Ammon residents last night rejected a $30,000 bond issue to construct a new city building.

Only 137 turned out to cast ballots. The count was 51 for the bond and 57 against, but it required a two-thirds majority for passage.

Ammon City Clerk Dermont Ricks said he was "disappointed" both at the vote and the turnout. He estimated some 300 to 400 property owners were eligible to cast ballots.

"I don't think the people realized what they were voting against," he said. "They didn't seem to make use of the information that was available."

He pointed out a public hearing was held Monday night and only 10 people, including the councilmen, turned out.

Conviction of Boise Driver Is Reversed

BOISE, April 17 (AP)—The Idaho supreme court reversed yesterday the third district court conviction of Max G. McGlochin, Boise, on a charge of negligent homicide. McGlochin was charged in connection with an accident in Garden City, Oct. 10, 1961, in which Lloyd Lewis, Boise, was injured fatally.

The high court said evidence presented during the trial indicated Lewis was injured when he stepped from his parked car and was struck by McGlochin's vehicle.

The supreme court, in an unanimous opinion written by Chief Justice E. T. Kousen, cited as grounds for reversing the conviction the trial court's refusal to present to its instructions to the jury McGlochin's contention that the accident was an act of misadventure and unavoidable on his part. The opinion ordered the case returned to the lower court for a new trial.

Argentine Police Placed Under Military Control

BUENOS AIRES, April 17 (AP)—The army announced today it has proclaimed limited emergency in Argentina, placing all of the nation's police forces under military control.

An army communique said garraones throughout the country have informed that a state of "internal commotion" exists, justifying the use of emergency powers granted to the army last fall.

No reason was given for the action, but it appeared to be aimed at the gunmen who have been shooting up Argentine cities in hit-and-run raids since the collapse of this month's anti-Peronist revolt.

No major trouble has been reported in this country since the rebels surrendered nearly two weeks ago, but unusual police precautions remain in effect.

Eichmann Aide Cited in Austria

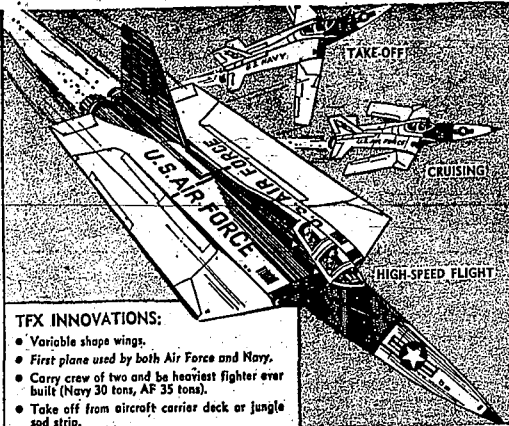

VIENNA, April 17 (AP)—Former Nazi officer Erich Rajkowski, alleged right-hand man of Adolf Eichmann, turned himself in to Austrian authorities today.

He will be tried as a war criminal, officials said.

Police said he was arrested on charges first made by the Vienna documentation center, that he was responsible for sending thousands of Dutch and Austrian Jews to Polish gas chambers during World War II.

The warrant for Rajkowski's arrest was issued immediately after he showed up at the Vienna court of inquiry this morning and was questioned briefly by officials there.

Khrushchev Marks 69th Birthday; His Health Is Good, Grip on State Firm

MOSCOW, April 17 (AP)—Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev quickly marked his 69th birthday today, with his health apparently good and his grip on the Soviet Union still firm.

The powerful leader of 220 million Russians was at his Black Sea retreat near Odesa where he went last month for a "working vacation."

Western observers saw no basis for recent rumors abroad that Khrushchev is facing a political challenge within the Kremlin hierarchy, although it is widely agreed that the premier and his country are facing difficult problems internally and internationally.

Few Russians were aware of Khrushchev's birthday. According to the Soviet custom of ignoring ordinary birthdays of leaders, no public celebrations were planned. The only notice of the occasion was a line of fine print on official Russian desk calendars.

The communist chief's health was reported good despite his advancing age and heavy burden of work. Liver trouble is his only ailment, and though he has taken to diets, cut down his drinking and keeps regular sleep habits, there is no sign that he has lost his familiar bounce and dynamism.

"My physicians are offended at me because I seldom see them," the premier recently told newsmen.

The principal problems plaguing Khrushchev are the ideological and political dispute with communist China, lagging farm production and the battle with Russia's intellectuals over communist party control of the arts.

But none of the problems is considered by western observers to be serious enough to bring about Khrushchev's fall in the immediate future. The observers say it is a fallacy to apply western reasoning to Soviet conditions and conclude that single setbacks—such as that in Cuba—might cause the fall of the government.

Moreover, since Khrushchev functions much like the board chairman of a corporation in the West, it would be wrong to pinpoint the blame on the premier for policy failures. The 15-man presidium bears collective responsibility for all major decisions.

It took former dictator Josef Stalin more than 10 years and a bloody purge to achieve supreme power in the Soviet Union, but Khrushchev reached the top within four years, bloodlessly and almost without pain.

Stalin died in March, 1953, with Khrushchev virtually unknown outside the Soviet Union. The following September, he became first secretary of the communist party, assuming control of the all-powerful party apparatus.

This made Khrushchev the ruler of Russia, although he did not take on the additional post of premier until 1958.

The strongest challenge to his leadership came from a Stalinist group headed by former premier

Joseph Stalin. Khrushchev has introduced many reforms which have improved conditions in the Soviet Union, but the party and state still distrust his policies and state still distrust his policies and state still distrust his policies.

At Odesa Khrushchev is said to be reviewing Soviet policy on major problems facing Russia. Televised meetings and telephone calls keep him in constant touch with the Kremlin and the outside world.

YOUR BIRTHDAY and HOROSCOPE

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17—Born today, you are not the one to pull the wool over anyone's eyes successfully. Your emotions invariably show in your face! Fortunately, you are not by nature devious or deceptive, and rarely do you ever have anything to hide. Open and candid, you meet life with high expectations and, although there may be times when life disappoints you in return, you generally manage to keep your optimistic outlook.

You have unusually high ideals and, regardless of what circumstances prevail, you remain steadfast to them. This indeed is the secret ability to face reverses calmly, for you always know that you have done your best and have conformed to your own high standards. You waste no time blaming yourself for difficulties; instead you set about picking up the pieces and beginning again.

Where your work is concerned, you are all business. But when it is time to play, there's no holding you. Charming, gay, you make an excellent companion, especially for those who may need cheering. But above all, you are a lover of home—and for you marriage is a vital ingredient if you are to be happy.

Among those born on this date are: Thornton Wilder, American author, playwright; William Holden, actor; Genevieve, French actress, singer; J. P. Morgan, financier.

Antelope Confab Says Fence Must Offer Clearance

BOISE, April 17 (AP)—An interstate antelope conference has recommended the building of barbed wire fences that will allow enough clearance for antelope to go under the fences.

The Idaho fish and game department said today it was recommended that a stock man in southern Idaho build fences that have from 18-18 inches clearance between the lower strand and the ground.

Idaho fish and game biologist Wes Shaw said antelope characteristically go under fences rather than hurdling them.

Shaw said the recent interstate conference of representatives of Idaho, Nevada, Oregon and California also recommended that if the maximum height of a barbed wire fence is 40 inches, this standard will benefit both whitetail and mule deer because these animals generally attempt to jump fences.

Truman, Kennedy Concept Of Revolutionary Opposed

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., April 17 (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman today expressed a different view of William Walker, who conquered Nicaragua in the 1850's, than President John F. Kennedy.

Truman, in a statement, described Walker as a "kind of revolutionary intellectual" whose purpose was to unite the Central American nation in a pattern similar to the U.S.

Before thousands of students at the University of Costa Rica in San Jose March 20, President Kennedy said this country and Latin America share a common heritage of independence.

He added, "Too much blood has been shed over too many years to preserve our independence from foreign rule. And we can never be secure in our hemisphere until the Soviet-Union goes the way of George III, the Spanish conquerors, Maximilian and William Walker."

A native of Nashville, Tenn., Walker, who lived from 1824-1859, became a soldier of fortune. He formed a state in Mexico and later invaded and captured Nicaragua with a handful of mercenaries.

Walker lost his empire when he encroached on Cornelius Vanderbilt, 1860, when he returned to Central America in a new attempt at conquest.

"It seems to me that Walker had an idea which began to take shape when he ruled Nicaragua where he quickly proved himself to be a man endowed with an unusual capacity for leadership," said Truman.

"His purpose, I believe, was to unite the Central American nations into a kind of a United States patterned after our own and to bring them into cooperation. I believe that had he succeeded he might have made a successful contribution to the organization of the Central American situation into which he, by the way, wanted to include Cuba.

"All of which might have resulted in influencing the shape of affairs we have with us today."

It should be noted that Walker was given recognition as the head of Nicaragua by President Pierce and upon being arrested later by a captain of the United States navy he was ordered released by President Buchanan.

Truman said that Walker was not a mere adventurer or soldier of fortune, but was a "kind of revolutionary intellectual during the 1850's when there was great deal of ferment going throughout the hemisphere."

The Idaho League for Nursing held its annual convention here last night in the Twin Falls hotel. Mrs. Mary M. Knight, supervising nurse in the Twin Falls health department, was elected president and program chairman.

Smylie, Boise Mayor Lead Mile Jaunt Through Capital

BOISE, April 17 (AP) — Gov. Albert C. Smylie and Mayor Eugene Shellworth led the nation's fast-growing group of physical fitness enthusiasts yesterday by leading a planned mile walk through downtown Boise.

A band of 40 persons, including four nurses, joined the governor in the Y.W.C.A.-sponsored event intended to foster the walking habit among under-exercised citizens.

The governor led the party over the measured mile course in exactly 18 minutes, one minute less than the time allotted for the excursion, despite side-walks left slippery and slushy by an early morning snowstorm.

At the end of the hike, Smylie, who confesses to being proud of his 35-inch waistline, said physical activity during the lunch hour is nothing new to him. "I'm one of those who have to watch their weight continually," he said.

Mayor Shellworth, on the other hand, when asked if he would like to "lose" another hike—answered, "Not if I can find the day on which they're going to hold it."

Canada May Play More Active Role in Hemispheric Affairs

OTTAWA, April 17 (AP) — Action to give Canada a more active role in hemispheric affairs probably will be one of the main foreign policy initiatives of the new liberal government headed by Nobel peace prize winner Lester B. Pearson.

It apparently will include Canadian membership in the organization of American States (OAS) and possibly some effort to associate Canada with French public sentiment for change in this country and none of the four political parties is committed to any change.

When it comes, the initiative in hemispheric affairs will represent a major change in Canadian foreign policy.

The defeated conservative government led by John Diefenbaker toyed with the idea of joining the OAS several times during its six-year reign, but each time backed off for one reason or another. Despite External Affairs Minister Howard Green's continued interest in Latin American affairs, formal action in recent months seemed further away than ever.

Fort Hall Girl Draws Probation On Manslaughter

POCATELLO, April 17 (AP) — Angeline Bruchette de Rouche, 17, Fort Hall, was found guilty of involuntary manslaughter yesterday in federal court and placed on probation for two years.

Judge Chase A. Clark sentenced a one-year prison sentence, saying, "I'm satisfied that this girl is not a criminal."

Mrs. de Rouche appeared in court on a charge stemming from an automobile accident Sept. 15, 1962, in which Dillard Franklin Miller, 60, Pocatello, died instantly, and his wife, 44, died later in a Salt Lake City hospital. The Millers were parents of seven children.

At the end of the hike, Smylie, who confesses to being proud of his 35-inch waistline, said physical activity during the lunch hour is nothing new to him. "I'm one of those who have to watch their weight continually," he said.

Trout Ranch Is Featured In Magazine

BUHL, April 17.—The April, 1963, issue of Sunset magazine features the Snake River Trout ranch, near Buhl, in an article entitled "It's the World's Largest Trout Farm."

The article asks, "Does curiosity make you detour to places described in superlatives? Then you won't want to pass up the Snake River Trout ranch in Idaho's Magic Valley—it's called the largest trout farm in the world."

The article mentions that the ranch raises and markets more than one and one-half million pounds of rainbow trout a year, explaining that during the spring "peak" more than nine million rainbow trout are packed and shipped. Details are listed concerning the ranch's compact, 10-acre site; its 57 concrete raceways and raising ponds; the modern, fully equipped processing and freezing plant; and the fabulous water supply which is part of the famous Thousand Springs system.

Wierd Bathyscaph Used in Nuclear Submarine Design

WASHINGTON, April 17 (UPI)—The weird bathyscaph Trieste was designed to discover how to make a new series of deep-diving, nuclear submarine design that could survive such attacks as sent the Trieste to the bottom.

The Trieste will be used to search a mile and a half south of the sea which caused the Soviet nuclear submarine to sink.

The Trieste has scarcely any mobility, but it can go down seven miles with impunity. It can stay down four hours, taking electronic measurements and "listening" to the Soviet nuclear submarine. The Trieste has a two-man crew to see through the 14-inch thick, 4-inch wide windows.

The crew also will be able to measure the radioactivity of the sea water and bottom sediment to make certain the wreck of the Soviet nuclear submarine will become a menace to life.

The navy hopes to translate the discoveries learned in working with this tough Trieste into submarines which can operate indefinitely and safely at depths of unrevealed "thousands of feet."

But even more importantly, the Trieste is the first of a series of deep-sea bathyscaphs which hopefully will discover enough of the nature of the ocean bottom and its geography so advanced U.S. submarines would be able to live, hide and hunt skillfully on the ocean bottom. They would have the "geographical" and electronic knowledge to search out "see" and kill enemy submarines. Yet they would be able to lurk so deep in ocean valleys that it will be extremely difficult for enemy subs to find and kill them.

But you would never guess this potential from looking at the awkward Trieste.

The main "hull" is 57 feet long, 11 feet in diameter, made of steel 1/2 inch thick. It is divided into 13 chambers, each separated by corrugated steel bulkheads.

In all of the compartments the Trieste carries about 30,000 gallons of aviation gasoline. Because gasoline is lighter than sea water, this gives the Trieste a net buoyancy of 75 to 100 tons at seven miles under the sea. The pressure on the hull—over eight tons a square inch. As the gasoline contracts, sea water flows in to create an even pressure.

The other two compartments are normally empty when the Trieste rides on the surface. They are filled with sea water to take her down.

In the hull also are 19 to 13 tons of small iron pellets the size of BB shots. These are released slowly to control the speed of the dive or in greater numbers to cause the Trieste to ascend.

Hanging below the hull is a spherical steel gondola about six feet in internal diameter, with walls 4 1/2 to 7 inches thick.

There are three officers qualified to operate the Trieste. Two of these now form the Trieste crew—Lieut. Cmdr. Donald Keach, the commanding officer, and Lieut. George Martin.

How will the Trieste operate in going down to look over the sunken Thresher?

Lieut. Martin will probably be assigned alone to operate on the surface.

Cmdr. Keach will probably take down with him a specialist on submarine construction who knows the submarine's mechanical details.

Capt. Harry Mason, commanding officer of the navy electronics laboratory at San Diego and normally responsible for the research operation of the Trieste, says that getting the bathyscaph down a mile and a half and looking around is no problem. "She's been going down once a week for the past year."

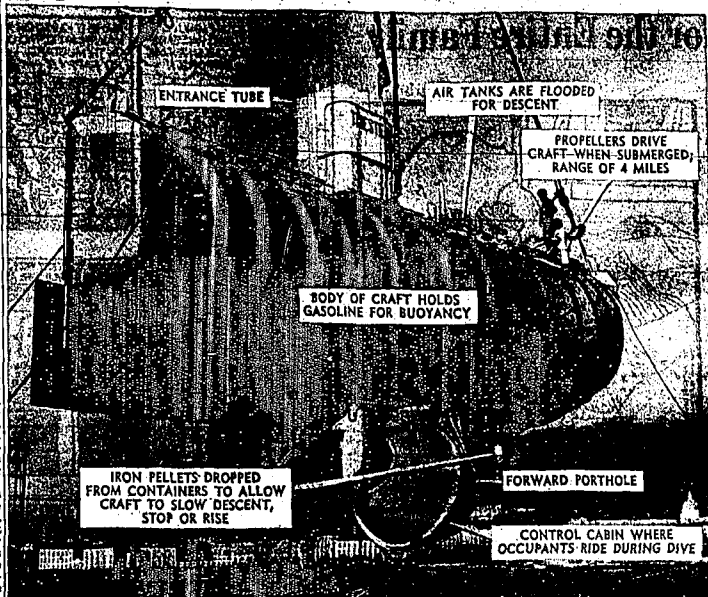

The problem, Capt. Mason says, is locating precisely where the sunken sub is and searching out ocean currents so you'll know how far the Trieste will drift as it goes down. The Trieste, he says, "is somewhat like a balloon." If figured correctly, the current will carry the Trieste to the exact spot where the Thresher lies.

Capt. Mason calculates it should take somewhat less than 10 hours to get the Trieste down, though it may take a number of tries to hit the Thresher area. Then the crew will have four hours of working time while the Trieste hovers. Battery power enables the Trieste to do some moving.

Before the operation starts, the two passengers will crowd into the small steel gondola. They'll enter by means of a tube slightly over two feet in diameter that leads down from the top of the hull to the gondola below. After the passengers squeeze in, the tube is filled with water to maintain internal pressure.

Apparatus in the Trieste regenerates the oxygen and absorbs carbon dioxide to maintain a supply of "fresh" air.

To move the Trieste down, the crew fills the two end compartments of the main hull with sea water. Then they slowly release the BB sized iron pellets (one ton for each 3,000 feet) to regulate the speed of their dive. Enough pellets are conserved to hold the Trieste hovering over the bottom. They can be released to cause the bathyscaph to rise. A line, hanging from the bottom of the Trieste, cushions the shock at the ocean bottom as the weight of the wire slackens off on the sea floor. Then the crew hopes to slowly move the Trieste

THE NAVY PLANS to send its deep-diving bathyscaph, the Trieste, to locate the bulk of the sunken nuclear submarine, USS Thresher, designed by the late Swiss scientist Auguste Piccard and his son, Jacques, made headlines on Jan. 23, 1963. That day Jacques Piccard and Navy Lieut. Don Walsh made a record dive of 15,800 feet to the floor of the Marianas Trench off Guam. The Thresher is down in waters about 4,000 feet deep. The Trieste operates like an underwater dirigible. Gasoline provides buoyancy, taking on water causes the craft to sink and dropping iron pellets causes it to rise. Delicate balancing of these three forces by the pilot, plus an electrically driven propeller gives the bathyscaph great maneuverability. A mechanical arm has been added to the underside of the Trieste which can pick up debris, take it to the surface.

Can you name the 6 reasons Martini devotees prefer the glorious Gordon's Martini?

- To this day, the ancient pot still method is used in distilling Gordon's Gin.
- Only gin from the heart of the run is bottled for Gordon's.
- Gordon's uses only juniper berries and other choice botanicals aged to the peak of maturity.
- Gordon's is extraordinarily dry.
- Gordon's has a distinctively delicate flavour.
- Gordon's maintains its exceptional quality because it still harks back to Alexander Gordon's original formula created in England in 1769. Reasons enough for enjoying a Glorious Gordon's Martini soon, wouldn't you say?

Japanese Eye Nuclear Subs

TOKYO, April 17 (UPI)—Foreign Minister Masayoshi Ohira said Tuesday Japan has questioned the U.S. government about the "safety" angle of nuclear submarines and about the sinking of the sunken Thresher.

"After we get replies to these questions, we will discuss within government circles the matter of U.S. nuclear submarine sailing at Japanese ports," Ohira told newsmen after the weekly cabinet meeting.

Phone Stock Offering Set To Get Fund

DENVER, April 17 (AP)—Directors of the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph company authorized company officers today to proceed with an offering of additional capital stock to shareholders.

Walter K. Koch, president, said it is expected the offering will be on the basis of one new share for each 10 shares held by shareholders at the close of business June 3. The stock will be offered through a prospectus to be mailed about June 8, with a warrant providing rights to purchase the new stock. Koch said as presently planned the rights will expire June 29.

Proceeds of the stock sale are to be used to repay temporary loans obtained from the company's continuing large construction program. This has exceeded 100 million dollars in the past seven years.

Koch also announced directors contemplate raising the dividend on the company's stock from 2 1/2 cents per share to 2 3/4 cents a share, beginning with the October quarterly payment.

The company operates in Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, Wyoming and El Paso, Tex.
